Mike Domitrz to present “Can I Kiss You?” at UMC

By Elizabeth Tollefson on Friday, January 28, 2005

The University of Minnesota, Crookston (UMC) invites the community to a special presentation on dating, communication, respect, and sexual assault awareness by Mike Domitrz entitled “Can I Kiss You?” For over a decade, Domitrz has been inspiring students with his hilarious sense of humor and uncanny ability to draw hard-hitting emotion from audiences. Two presentations will be held on Wednesday, February 2 on the UMC Campus. The first presentation is scheduled at 4:00 p.m. in Brown Dining Room with a repeat performance at 8:00 p.m. in Kiehle Auditorium.

The community and surrounding area are invited to come and hear this fun, interactive, and thought-provoking presentation focusing on why and how “respect” and “asking first” make all the difference. Tickets for the event are $2.00; UMC students are free. If you would like more information, please contact the student information desk located in 119 Dowell Hall by calling 281-8520.
